Foreword

Those suffering with mental health issues, intellectual disabilities, and substance use disorders are among the most underserved members of our society. These problems cross all racial, religious, and economic lines and necessarily demand our steadfast commitment to promoting better care for this population. Everyone has or will come into close contact with a person who suffers a mental health issue.

In January of 2018, the Texas Supreme Court and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals joined hands in launching the Judicial Commission on Mental Health to assist these members of our society through collaboration, education, and implementation of services for appropriate care.

But in a state with 254 counties, resources are stretched thin and, in rural counties, are often non-existent. Also, solutions have long been pondered as to the direction we take in dealing with persons in the criminal justice system who might be better served through alternatives to incarceration. Civil commitment processes beg for uniformity and additional funding.

The issues are many, the population diverse and immense. It is commendable that programs and cooperative efforts to address mental health and substance use disorders needs are on the rise, but there remain so many questions to answer and problems to resolve.

While this book is by no means a complete compilation of all the resources available in Texas, we have begun to gather as many resources as we can with a mind that this will be a living document to be continuously updated. We have included all types of programs and facilities from governmental agencies and organizations to private practitioners and all those in between in a combined effort to assist those in need.

I invite anyone and everyone to continue to send us any information or resources to add to our book for the future benefit of those with mental health issues. Not only will the person suffering from these issues benefit from the sharing of these resources, but all those affected will benefit as well. It is my hope that, as resources are expanded across the state, we will all share in reshaping our approach to mental health.

Explanation of Mental Health Services

Crisis Services and Facilities

Crisis Hotline: Provides information, support, referrals, screening, and intervention services 24/7.

Mobile Crisis Outreach Teams (MCOT): Provides immediate response to the location where a psychiatric crisis is occurring. MCOT is available 24/7 and mental health professionals respond to calls from the home, school, street, or clinic.

Crisis Intervention, Relapse Prevention, and Follow-Up: Provides services to individuals who are not in imminent danger of harm to self or others, but require additional assistance to avoid reoccurrence of the crisis event. Mental health professionals respond to crises to reduce symptoms and prevent admission of an individual to a more restrictive environment.

Crisis Respite: Provides short-term, community-based crisis care for individuals who have low-risk of harm to themselves or others, but may have some functional impairment. This is the least intensive, facility-based crisis option. Services occur outside of a person's home and may be provided for a few hours or a few days. Many people served in these programs have experienced an event causing significant distress, are having housing challenges, or have loved ones/caretakers who are seeking temporary support or supervision for the individual. Facility-based crisis respite services have trained staff on-site 24/7.

Crisis Residential: Provides up to 14 days of short-term, community-based residential, crisis treatment for individuals who may pose some risk of harm to themselves or others, have a severe impairment in their ability to function, and demonstrate a psychiatric crisis that cannot be stabilized in a less intensive setting. This is a more intensive, facility-based crisis option with trained staff on-site 24/7.

Psychiatric Emergency Service Center (PESC): Provides a combination of facility-based crisis care services, such as those listed above. PESC's must be 7 available for walk-ins and provide immediate access to assessment, triage and a continuum of stabilizing treatment for individuals experiencing a behavioral health crisis. PESC's are staffed by medical personnel and mental health professionals and provide care 24/7.

Extended Observation Unit (EOU): Provides emergency services for up to 48 hours to individuals in psychiatric crisis. Services are provided in a secure and protected, clinically staffed, psychiatrically supervised environment with immediate access to urgent or emergent medical and psychiatric evaluation and treatment. Individuals seeking treatment in an EOU may pose a moderate to high-risk of harm to themselves or others. A determination of whether the individual has stabilized or requires a psychiatric hospitalization is made prior to the end of the 48-hour period.

Crisis Stabilization Unit (CSU): Provides short-term, residential treatment to reduce acute symptoms of mental illness. Although it is slightly less intensive than a full psychiatric hospitalization, this is one of the most intensive facility-based crisis options.

Rapid Crisis Stabilization Bed: Provides very brief stays in licensed psychiatric hospitals to relieve acute symptoms and restore an individual's ability to function in a less restrictive setting.

Residential Treatment Center (RTC): Provides 24-hour care for children younger than 18 years of age and may offer programmatic services such as transitional living or emergency care, or may offer treatment services for emotional disorders or primary medical needs. An RTC is a type of General Residential Operation that serves only children needing treatment services for emotional disorders. Specialized RTC initiative implemented through a partnership between HHSC and DFPS provides an intensive service alternative for children/youth at risk for parental relinquishment of custody due to a lack of mental health resources. Youth reside in these facilities an average of six to nine months. Children between 5 and 17 years of age needing this service must be referred by DFPS Child Protective Services (CPS) following a CPS investigation resulting in "no finding" of abuse or neglect by the parent/guardian. LMHAs/LBHAs provide families help to complete the RTC "Common Application" and assessment for eligibility to an RTC.

Waco Center for Youth Residential Treatment Center: A state-operated, psychiatric residential treatment facility that serves adolescents 13 to 17 years of age with significant or severe emotional difficulties and/or behavioral problems. This is a unique facility that serves approximately 70 youth from across the state and is located in Waco. Applications for the Waco Center for Youth are facilitated by the respective LMHA/LBHA. Contact: Admissions Coordinator 254-745-5399, or Admissions/Aftercare Assistant 254-745-5302.

Outpatient Services

Access to Benefits: When an individual is enrolled in services at the LMHA or LBHA, the benefits specialist may assist the individual in applying for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Supplemental Security Disability Income (SSDI).

Assertive Community Treatment (ACT): An evidence-based practice provided by the LMHAs and LBHAs that is specifically designed for adults who have difficulty avoiding repeated admissions or long stays in inpatient psychiatric facilities. ACT provides a full array of intensive, in-home services and utilizes person-centered recovery planning to help these individuals achieve stability and facilitate community living.

Case Management: Case managers employed by LMHAs and LBHAs help adults, children, or caregivers obtain needed services, such as employment, medication, and substance use disorder treatment.

Counseling (Cognitive Behavioral Therapy and Cognitive Processing Therapy): Individual, family, and group therapy works to reduce or eliminate an individual's symptoms of mental illness and increase the individual's ability to perform normal, daily activities. This evidence-based practice is frequently recommended for people with diagnoses of major depression or post-traumatic stress disorder.

Home and Community Based-Adult Mental Health Program (HCBS-AMH): The HCBS-AMH program is designed to serve adults age 18 and older who have a diagnosis of a serious mental illness and require a very intense level of support to be successful in the community. An individual meets this criteria if the individual: (a) resided in an inpatient psychiatric hospital for three or more years (cumulative or consecutive) during the five years prior to enrollment (including days of forensic inpatient commitments); (b) was arrested four or more times and experienced a severe psychiatric crisis during the three years prior to enrollment; or had fifteen or more emergency department visits and experienced a severe psychiatric crisis during the three years prior to enrollment. Additionally, an individual must be eligible for Medicaid and meet specific functional criteria to receive HCBS-AMH services. The HCBS-AMH program has funds available to serve a small number of 9 indigent individuals, who are not eligible for Medicaid and have resided in an inpatient psychiatric hospital for three or more years. The HCBS-AMH program provides an array of services, appropriate to each individual's needs, to enable individuals to live and experience recovery in his or her community. Individuals can be referred to the program through their LMHA or LBHA. For more information on the services available through HCBS-AMH and where the program is available, visit <https://hhs.texas.gov/services/mental-health-substance-use>.

Medication and Medication Training: Physicians (and people who assist physicians, such as nurse practitioners and physician assistants) assess whether medications would help adults and children address symptoms, achieve stability, and ultimately recover. Physicians also work with treatment teams to provide education and guidance about these medications and their possible side effects.

Peer Services and Supports: Peer providers share their experience related to recovery; act as a model of hope and resilience to others; provide education, training, and interventions within the recovery process; and promote integration with community resources. Peer providers have experienced mental illness, which makes them uniquely able to promote wellness, recovery, and an independent life in the community. Peer support is available at the LMHA and LBHA as part of the HCBS-AMH program.

Permanent Supported Employment: This evidence-based practice is available at the LMHA and LBHA and builds upon rehabilitation services and works to help people choose, obtain, and maintain employment in regular community jobs.

Permanent Supportive Housing: This evidence-based practice is available at the LMHAs and LBHAs and builds upon case management and rehabilitation services to help people choose, obtain, and maintain regular, long-term integrated housing. This service is available to all who demonstrate housing needs.

Rehabilitation and Skills Training: This training provides evidence-based intervention services as part of the overall treatment planning process to facilitate recovery.

Substance Use Disorder Services: LMHAs and LBHAs work closely with OSARs to help people with issues related to substance use. Regardless of their ability to pay, Texas residents seeking substance use disorder services and information may qualify for services based on need. For a complete list of OSARS, visit <https://hhs.texas.gov/services/mental-health-substance-use>, or Appendix B: Outreach, Screening, Assessment, and Referral Centers.

Projects for Assistance in Transitions from Homelessness (PATH): The PATH program is a federal grant that funds services for people with serious mental illness 10 experiencing homelessness. Supported activities include screening and diagnostic treatment, community mental health services, substance use treatment, case management services, supportive and supervisory services in residential settings, referrals for primary healthcare, job training, educational services, and housing. PATH services are for eligible individuals with serious mental illnesses and those with co-occurring substance use disorders who are experiencing homelessness or are at imminent risk of homelessness. The primary objective is to provide outreach to these individuals, and connect them with mainstream services. There are currently 16 PATH providers in the State of Texas, covering 15 geographic locations. PATH also serves individuals involved in the criminal justice system who meet eligibility criteria.

Youth Empowerment Services (YES): The YES program serves youth 3 through 18 years of age by providing services in a child's home and local community to children who would otherwise need an institutional level of care or whose parents would turn to out-of-home placement due to the child/youth's serious emotional disturbance (SED). Individuals must be eligible for Medicaid and meet specific requirements to receive services. Parental income is not included in financial eligibility determinations for Medicaid when the youth is determined eligible for YES. Services are available statewide. The process for enrollment begins when the legally authorized representative for the youth calls the Inquiry Line at the LMHA or LBHA. For a list of the number for the Inquiry Line by county and more information about YES, visit <https://hhs.texas.gov/services/mental-health-substanceuse/childrens-mental-health/yes-waiver>

Services for People in the Criminal Justice System (Forensic Services)

Crisis Intervention Response Team (CIRT) Program: The CIRT assists law enforcement officers with behavioral health calls, evaluate persons in behavioral health crises in their natural environment and make appropriate referrals for mental health services, thereby, reducing the numbers of individuals that inappropriately end up in the jails or emergency rooms. CIRT is located at TriCounty Services covering Liberty, Montgomery, and Walker counties.

Harris County Jail Diversion Program (HCJDP): The Harris County Jail Diversion Program (HCJDP) provides a continuum of services and supports to reduce criminal justice involvement and unwarranted admissions for emergency room services, while increasing enrollment in long-term mental health services.

Home and Community Based-Adult Mental Health Program (HCBSAMH): The HCBS-AMH program is designed to serve adults age 18 and older who have a diagnosis of a serious mental illness and require a very intense level of support to be successful in the community. An individual meets this criteria if the individual: (a) resided in an inpatient psychiatric hospital for three or more years (cumulative or consecutive) during the five years prior to enrollment (including days of forensic inpatient commitments); (b) was arrested four or more times and experienced a severe psychiatric crisis during the three years prior to enrollment; or had fifteen or more emergency department visits and experienced a severe psychiatric crisis during the three years prior to enrollment. Additionally, an individual must be eligible for Medicaid and meet specific functional criteria to receive HCBS-AMH services. The HCBS-AMH program has funds available to serve a small number of indigent individuals, who are not eligible for Medicaid and have resided in an inpatient psychiatric hospital for three or more years. The HCBS-AMH program provides an array of services, appropriate to each individual's needs, to enable individuals to live and experience recovery in his or her community. Individuals can be referred to the program through their LMHA or LBHA. For more information on the services available through HCBS-AMH and where the program is available, visit <https://hhs.texas.gov/services/mental-health-substance-use>

Mental Health Deputy (MHD) Program: Mental Health Deputies are officers specially trained in crisis intervention that works collaboratively with the community and the crisis response teams of LMHAs and LBHAs. MHD programs help improve the crisis response system by diverting individuals in need of behavioral health crisis services from hospitals and jails to community-based alternatives that provide effective behavioral health treatment at less cost than hospitals and jails.

Mental Health Docket: Mental health courts promote accountability by helping individuals understand their public responsibilities and connecting them with services in their communities. Services can include but are not limited to case manager screening and assessment, recovery plan development, medication management, psychosocial rehabilitation, skills training, case management, peer support, supported housing, supported employment, and counseling. The program currently provided by the Texas Panhandle serving Potter and Randall counties.

Outpatient Competency Restoration Program: Provided through an LMHA or LBHA this program offers a full array of mental health services to adults deemed incompetent to stand trial. This program also provides services and supports in a person's home or community and is created as an alternative to inpatient treatment for competency restoration at state mental health facilities.

Texas Correctional Office on Offenders with Medical or Mental Impairments Programs (TCOOMMI): LMHA and LBHA providers connect juvenile and adult offenders with special needs to a full array of psychiatric and medical services upon their release on probation or parole. The Texas Department of Criminal Justice, county jails, and Texas Juvenile Justice Department institutions refer juvenile or adult offenders to this program. LMHA and LBHA providers also work closely with parole and probation officers to help the person comply with the conditions of his or her release, with a particular focus on engaging them in behavioral health treatment.

Prevention and Early Intervention Programs (PEI)

PEI-HVP manages community-based programs that prevent delinquency, abuse, neglect and exploitation of Texas children; helps communities enhance services provided through the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services; assists communities in identifying prevention and early intervention needs, and supports the development of, and modifications to, new and existing programs designed to prevent or reduce poor outcomes for children, youth and their families. https://www.dfps.state.tx.us/prevention_and_early_intervention/about_prevention_and_early_intervention/programs.asp

Community Youth Development (CYD)

The CYD program contracts with community-based organizations to develop juvenile-delinquency prevention programs in ZIP codes with high juvenile crime rates for youth ages six to 17 (with a focus on youth ages 10 through 17). Communities use mentoring, youth-employment programs, career preparation, and alternative recreational activities to prevent delinquency. CYD services are available in 15 targeted Texas ZIP codes. In addition, each contractor must create or participate in an existing community-based collaborative committee or group to help integrate CYD into the community. Youth Leadership Development must also be provided through each contractor.

Services to At-Risk Youth (STAR) Youth and Family Program

The STAR program's primary purpose is to serve youth and their families needing crisis intervention, help with family conflict, concerns involving school performance and attendance and building parent and youth skills. Youth age zero to 17 and through age 18, if they are still in school, are eligible for the program. Provides:

1. Free crisis hotline available 24/7.
2. Individual, family and youth counseling to help reduce conflict.
3. Emergency short-term shelter for youth who run away or who are unable to stay at home because of family conflict.
4. Skill-building classes to help parents and caregivers learn how to handle difficult situations.
5. Skill-building classes for youth to help them gain coping skills and meet their needs in a positive way.

Texas Visiting Program

The primary goals of Texas Home Visiting (THV) are to enhance maternal and child outcomes and to increase school readiness for children. To accomplish these goals, THV includes two primary components: (a) provision of evidence-based home visiting services for at-risk pregnant women and parents/caregivers of children birth to age five; and, (b) development/enhancement of early childhood coalitions that effectively coordinate services and address broad, community-level issues that impact young children and families. Texas Home Visiting is for expectant parents and parents with children six years old and younger.

Yes Waiver – Wraparound Services

The YES Waiver is a 1915(c) Medicaid program that provides comprehensive home and community-based mental health services to children and youth between the ages of 3 and 18, up to their 19th birthday, who have a Serious Emotional Disturbance (SED). The YES Waiver provides flexible supports and specialized services to children and youth who are at risk of institutionalization and/or out-of-home placement due to their SED.

The YES Waiver utilizes a Wraparound model for the planning process. A team comprised of formal and non-formal supports is created by the child and family to help to identify their strengths, needs and vision, and the team determines what YES Waiver services are needed to help address the child or youth's SED. YES Waiver services include:

- Respite
- Community Living Supports
- Specialized Therapies
- Family Supports
- Employee Assistance and Supported Employment
- Adaptive Aids and Supports
- Minor Home Modifications
 - Non-Medical Transportation
- Paraprofessional Services
- Supportive Family-Based Alternatives
- Transition Services

If a child is interested in the YES Waiver, their Legally Authorized Representative (LAR) must call their Local Mental Health Authority's (LMHA) YES Waiver Inquiry Line to schedule an assessment. Texas Education Agency (TEA)

<http://tea.texas.gov/>

The Texas Education Agency is the state agency that oversees primary and secondary public education. It is headed by the commissioner of education. The mission of TEA is to provide leadership, guidance and resources to help schools meet the educational needs of all students. TEA coordinates with 20 Regional Education Service Centers (ESCs) that provide support to school districts and charters. They provide a wide array of training, services such as handling payrolls for districts, meeting space and much more to Texas schools. The agency also has programs supporting military families and homeless students and provides up-to-date information on weather and other disasters affecting Texas school districts.

Texas System of Care (TxSOC)

<http://www.txsystemofcare.org/>

The TxSOC initiative implements the system of care framework at the state and local levels to improve mental health outcomes for children, youth, and their families. To achieve this goal, core values direct systems of care to be family driven and youth-guided, community-based, and culturally and linguistically competent. Collaboration among agencies, with community partners, and with youth and family members is essential to a successful system of care that builds on the strengths of the youth and families in the community that it serves.

Texas Juvenile Justice Department

The Texas Juvenile Justice Department is the state agency that funds 161 probation departments that encompass all 254 counties in Texas, and five Texas Juvenile Justice Department sites for youth who are sent to juvenile justice residential facilities.

The Probation and Community Services Division works with probation departments across the state to enhance the many services offered to the local youth. By facilitating quality interaction between juvenile boards and juvenile probation departments and the various divisions within TJJD we can work together in all areas of juvenile justice.

This partnership encourages participation from all departments. TJJD understands the wide diversity in the many departments across Texas; the Probation and Community Services Division recognizes this also and serves as a resource for innovative approaches when problem solving. As a liaison between the Department and the field, the Probation and Community Services Division will be a resource for the continued success of the departments and TJJD. Other Departments within the Probation and Community Services Division:

- Interstate Compact for Juveniles (ICJ) – Texas students who are on supervision in other states;
- Juvenile Justice Alternative Education Program – 32 programs that serve students who have been expelled from their school districts;
- Placement Services & Title IV-E Program – oversees the Title IV-E Program for youth supervised by county juvenile probation departments and those committed to the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD). Title IV-E is a federal foster care reimbursement program which allows probation departments and TJJD to claim reimbursement for a percentage of the cost of placement for eligible youth placed in approved IV-E facilities as well as administrative costs related to operating the program.
- Prevention and Intervention Services - TJJD is committed to helping youth become productive, responsible, and lawful citizens by funding programs and services for students and their families, intended to prevent or intervene in at-risk behaviors that lead to delinquency, truancy, dropping out of school, or referral to the juvenile justice system.
- Special Needs Diversionary Program - The Special Needs Diversionary Program (SNDP) was created in 2001 to provide mental health treatment and specialized supervision in order to rehabilitate juvenile offenders and prevent them from penetrating further into the criminal justice system. The program is administered in a collaborative model by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) and the Texas Correctional Office on Offenders with Medical and Mental Impairments (TCOOMMI).

Local Mental Health Authorities/Local Behavioral Health Authorities:

Every community in Texas is served by a Local Mental Health Authority (LMHA) or Local Behavioral Health Authority (LBHA). LMHAs/LBHAs help people understand what treatment options will address the challenges associated with their mental illness and ultimately achieve recovery. LMHAs/LBHAs provide a wide array of treatment services and support, and also connect people with resources unique to their community. Texas Health and Human Services contracts with 37 local mental health authorities and two local behavioral health authorities to deliver mental health services in communities across Texas. LMHAs and LBHAs provide services to specific areas based on the county the individual lives in. For help finding your specific service provider please see <https://hhs.texas.gov/services/mental-health-substance-use/mental-health-substance-use-resources/find-your-local-mental-health-or-behavioral-health-authority>.

Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) Accredited Substance Abuse Facilities

CARF is an international, independent non-profit accreditor of health and human services. Through an accreditation process, CARF assists service providers in improving the quality of their services, demonstrating value, and meeting internationally recognized organizational and program standards through on-site visits. Policy and standards are developed from a board of various professionals both in the United States and from abroad. For more information on CARF please see www.carf.org or call 888-281-6531. Service providers under CARF can be searched on the website for your local provider and for the services offered.

Disability Rights Texas

Protection and advocacy agencies (P&As) were created in the early 1970s, following a media investigation of Willowbrook, a New York State institution for children with mental disabilities. The press exposed deplorable conditions and inhumane treatment of residents at the government-run institution. In response, Congress passed legislation in 1975 designating an organization within each state to protect and advocate for the rights of people with disabilities. Disability Rights Texas opened its doors in 1977 with the mission of helping people with disabilities understand and exercise their rights under the law, ensuring their full and equal participation in society. Hogg Foundation for Mental Health

The Hogg Foundation invests in programs, policy analysis, research and education through grants, scholarships and fellowships to transform how communities promote mental health in everyday life. The foundation builds capacity through planning, implementation, collaboration, and evaluation grants to eligible organizations and institutions.

The Hogg Foundation is guided in large part by Ima Hogg's vision for a Texas that supports and promotes mental health and well-being. Miss Ima believed that mental health exists along a continuum and people living with mental health conditions should be able to receive professional treatment and live rich lives in community-based, rather than institutional, settings. She believed supports for mental health and well-being can be applied to everyday situations in schools, workplaces, churches and families.

Steve Hicks School of Social Work at the University of Texas at Austin

Most research projects are part of one of the Steve Hicks School of Social Work's institutes, listed below. Directed by social work faculty, these institutes and programs pursue interdisciplinary, scientifically rigorous social and behavioral research, and provide expertise and a range of services including program evaluation and training to research and practice communities.

The Steve Hicks School offers the following services:

Addiction Research Institute (ARI)

Focuses on substance abuse among under-served populations (particularly African Americans and Mexican Americans). ARI adopts a uniquely social work perspective, emphasizing factors at the individual, family, organizational, societal, and cultural level that influence substance abuse and substance abuse treatment.

Health Behavior Research and Training Institute (HBRT)

Specializes in the development and implementation of interventions addressing behavior change using the Transtheoretical Model (TTM) and Motivational Interviewing (MI). Intervention research has targeted HIV and safer sexual practices, prenatal health, alcohol, cocaine, smoking, STI testing, and fetal alcohol spectrum disorder. HBRT has a history of providing training on the TTM, MI, and evidence-based intervention and prevention approaches, with recent emphasis on teaching health care providers to use brief motivational interventions in medical settings.

Texas Institute for Child & Family Wellbeing

Is a partnership of researchers committed to producing quality research to guide policy and social work practice for children and families. The institute currently focuses on nine topics: foster care and permanency, adolescent sexual health, child care, social work practices in healthcare, child maltreatment prevention, adoption, guardianship and kinship, disabilities, Latino immigrant families, and social work practices in schools.

Institute for Collaborative Health Research and Practice

An academic-community partnership that brings together practice and research professionals from many disciplines to investigate and address the health needs of individuals and communities. The overarching goal of this collaborative initiative is to enhance and support individual, family and community health and wellness

Texas Institute for Excellence in Mental Health

A multi-disciplinary collaboration focused on improving the social, emotional, and behavioral health of Texans. The scope of the Institute's effort includes evidence-based practice implementation, workforce training and technical assistance, research and evaluation, policy and program development, and information dissemination.

Institute for Military & Veteran Family Wellness

A joint effort of the Steve Hicks School of Social Work and the Dell Medical School Department of Psychiatry. the program serves as a home-base where researchers and community members collaborate to determine effective care and develop programs and practices needed by service members, veterans, their caregivers, and their families. In addition, the program partners with expert trainers to support the training of health care professionals and graduate students in evidence-based treatments. The program also offers assistance in research, training and community support for the implementation of effective practices to organizations that serve service members, veterans and their families.

Institute for Organizational Excellence (IOE)

It has over 30 years of experience in providing survey research services to over a hundred state and local government agencies and institutions of higher education as well as private and nonprofit organizations. The overlying goal of the IOE is to promote excellence within organizations by encouraging research and continuing education. Our largest continuous project is the Survey of Employee Engagement (formerly the Survey of Organizational Excellence), an employee assessment instrument widely used throughout Texas governmental agencies, not-for-profit organizations, and in many different types of organizations across the country.

Institute for Restorative Justice and Restorative Dialogue

Seeks to build a national mindset that embraces restorative justice principles. Its mission is to advance meaningful accountability, victim healing and community safety through the use of restorative solutions to repair the harm related to conflict, crime and victimization.

Institute on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (IDVSA)

Creates opportunities for faculty and students to conduct research and share expertise through collaboration with community agencies and local, state, and national organizations. In addition, IDVSA offers training and disseminates information on domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking to policy makers, students and service providers in fields of social work, law, nursing, and related disciplines.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) is the agency within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services that leads public health efforts to advance the behavioral health of the nation. SAMHSA's mission is to reduce the impact of substance abuse and mental illness on America's communities. www.samhsa.gov

Hope Squad

Hope Squads seek to reduce self-destructive behavior and youth suicide by training, building, and creating change in schools and communities. The Hope Squad program is a school-based peer support team that partners with local mental health agencies. Peers select students who are trustworthy and caring individuals to join the Hope Squad. Squad members are trained to watch for at-risk students, provide friendship, identify suicide-warning signs, and seek help from adults. <https://hopesquad.com/hopesquad.com>

Response to Intervention (RTI) - TEA

Response to Intervention is an approach that schools use to help all students, including struggling learners. The RTI approach gives Texas students opportunities to learn and work at their grade level. The idea is to help all students be successful.

<http://tea.texas.gov/index2.aspx?id=2147500224>

Restorative Practices

Restorative Discipline Practices (RDP) in Texas began in the Fall of 2015. The Texas Education Agency partnered with the Institute for Restorative Justice and Restorative Dialogue at The University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work to participate in a statewide roll out.

The approach fosters belonging over exclusion, social engagement over control, and meaningful accountability over punishment. It is a trauma-informed practice. Integrating Positive and Restorative Practices to Supporting Student Behavior is a training available at the 20 ESCs that has been designed to help schools develop RD practices within a Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) framework.

For more information visit:

Texas Education Agency: http://tea.texas.gov/Restorative_Discipline/

Social and Emotional Learning

Social and Emotional Learning is part of a trauma-informed approach to prevention and intervention. The Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL) Website has many resources on research, policy and programs on SEL for schools.

The Guide shares best-practice guidelines for district and school teams on how to select and implement SEL programs:

Texas Behavior Support Network (TBS)

The goal of the Texas Behavior Support (TBS) Network is to create a system of PBIS for students with disabilities and all students attending Texas public schools. Although the original focus of TBS was to support the behavior needs of students with disabilities, it quickly became evident in examining the newly expanding Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) model that in order to address the needs of children in special education, prevention interventions had to be implemented for all students. Therefore, the TBS Network adopted PBIS as its philosophical foundation and supports all three tiers of the model, including school-wide and classroom.

TRAUMA-Informed Practices for Schools

Below are links to a selection of state and national resources that provide information on the impact of trauma on learning. Research has found that adverse childhood experiences negatively impact child development tasks, self-regulation, coping and other important skills which subsequently impact learning. Some of the resources document the positive prevention benefits on factors such as improved school discipline when implementing whole-school supports that build resilience and provide protective factors in the school environment. Other resources describe interventions that are specifically designed and effective for supporting traumatized children. Data reveals that through a mix of trauma-informed practices and strategies that schools can better promote the mental health and learning of all students by using a trauma-informed lens.
